

Your life in bite-sized pieces

A Memoir writing workshop for adults led by poet and author
Catherine Wald

Fridays, from 12 Noon to 1:00 p.m.

March 18, April 8, April 15, April 22, April 29, May 13

Registration Required.

Writing about your life may feel like a daunting task. Where and how do you begin?

The focus of this six-session workshop is to inspire you to tell some of your own stories using specific, manageable assignments. In a supportive atmosphere, you'll feel free to experiment with different approaches, voices and writing techniques.

The workshop is open to beginners and experienced writers alike, and may be of special interest to seniors who want to preserve family stories for generations to come.

Irvington Public Library , 12 South Astor Street, Irvington, NY
914-591-7840; www.irvingtonlibrary.org